Montpelier Seminary Finally Won Out Over Randolph Aggies

SCORE 11 TO 10 WITH MUCH COMEDY

Winning Run Made When Aggies' Backstop Had Passed Ball

A small crowd watched a 12-inning Vermont's team this year remains practically the same as the winning aggregation of last year, which put Vermont in sixth place in collegiate fun, Monday afternoon when Montpelgame of baseball, or rather comedy, in which the umpires furnished the most ier seminary played with the Vermont ning by a score of 11 to 10, the win-Vermont, allowing only one pass, and ning score coming when Robins al-claiming for himself six assists. Lees lowed a ball to go to the backstop with two Montpelier men on the bases. At no time in the game were the teams separated to any extent. At one time Three nice double plays were pulled off. In the first inning, after two getting Harlow and Gormley returned the ball to Ceresola, who eaught Harrington well off the plate. In the third rington well off the plate. In the third inning Gormley had singled and then Edwards drove a fly to Willoughby, who threw to the second bag getting Gormley on a double play. In the eighth inning James popped up a fly which Rabiolla caught and then ran to second beating Harlow, who was to be second beating Harlow who was to be second beating the seco which Rabiolla caught and then ran to second, beating Harlow, who was returning to the bag, making a double turning to the bag, making a double play all of his own. Soule's triple came in the eighth in ning with one man on while Edwards triple came in the sixth inning. He scored on a passed ball, the three men following being easily out. Merz' two The second time Merz went to sleep and was caught off second. It was a bad day for injuries. Martin wisted a knee in the first inning and ent to the dressing room, Merz and tavies were limping before the game

NORWICH BEAT YALE

Pole Match Played at Northfield on Saturday Afternoon.

Norwich beat Yale in a return pole game here at Northfield Saturday aftrnoon by a score of 19-7. The game as one of the feature events of the unior week festivities and the riding hall was crowded to its capacity with an enthusiastic audience. Yale was bundleapped considerably by playing on strange horses and in a riding hall anch smaller than their own, but the Norwich team put up a fight which has been unequaled this season. Deane played a hard game for Yale and Jos-lyn and White excelled in shooting goals for the Norwich team.
